

CONFLICT TEXTILES

War-torn Children exhibition - Linen Hall Library

Launch events, Linen Hall library: Wednesday 1st March

Exhibition launch, 1pm

Welcome and introduction by Julie Andrews, Linen Hall library Director

Keynote address by Mairead Maguire, Nobel Peace Laureate

Possible guided tour of the exhibition by Roberta Bacic

Music by Mary Begley

Tea, coffee, biscuits on arrival

Belfast launch of books by Margaretta D'Arcy, 6pm: "Ireland's Guantanamo Granny" and a new edition of "Tell them everything" (1st edition 1981)

Professor Phil Scraton in conversation with Margaretta D'Arcy

Drinks on arrival

String quartet: "Mendelssohn"

Associated activities at the Linen Hall library and around the city of Belfast during the exhibition period

Guided tour by Roberta Bacic

Friday 3rd March at 3pm

Guided tour by Roberta Bacic with students from the Co. Donegal Read DL project (a school and community based literacy initiative), followed by a tour of the Belfast murals with author Bill Rolston

Tuesday 14th March, 12 – 2.00pm (tour 2 - 3.30pm)

Guided tour by Roberta Bacic with students and teacher Martin Mac Maolain from Beneavin De La Salle College, Finglas, Co. Dublin, followed by a visit to "Peace People" hosted by Mairead Maguire, Nobel Peace Laureate.

Tuesday 4th April, 11.30am

Visit by Textile Artist, Eileen Harrisson

Tuesday 11th April, lunchtime

Guided tour and workshop as part of the INMP conference "Cities as Living Museums for Peace"

Tuesday 11th April, 4.15pm

Closing event:

Arpillera doll making workshop, facilitated by Roberta Bacic

Friday 14th April, 2 – 4 pm