Funeral of Paul Quinn

The funeral has taken place of the murdered County Armagh man Paul Quinn.

Mr Quinn, 21, died after being beaten by a gang of men in County Monaghan at the weekend.

His funeral took place at Saint Patrick`s Church in Cullyhanna today.

Mr Quinn died after he was savagely beaten by a gang armed with iron bars. They lured him to a remote farm in County Monaghan on Saturday.

After his murder, his family claimed he had been killed following a row with a republican. However Sinn Fein insists republicans were not involved in the killing.

Father Kevin Cullen told hundreds of mourners today that Mr Quinn`s murder was `a barbaric crime and deeply sinful`.

He said Mr Quinn`s family had set a great example of Christianity by appealing for no retaliation.
