SDLP Leader and Foyle MP Mark Durkan has condemned the murder of PSNI Constable Stephen Carroll in Craigavon last night.

He said: “On behalf of the SDLP I wish to offer my sincere sympathies to the family Constable Stephen Carroll, his colleagues and the wider policing community.

“It is important that we reinforce our regard and support for all who serve our entire community on a day to day basis.

“Those responsible for last night’s murder are ruthless, subversive and irredentist. We have to send out a united, determined and resolved message through all democratic means at our disposal that they will not be allowed to succeed.

“Furthermore, I would like to record our strong appreciation of those employees of the health service who as a result of the events of recent days have been plunged back into the dark days of the past.

“And as send out our sympathies we must also remember the many victims of the past who did not have the comfort of the unity of condemnation that we have seen in the past few days and recognise their hurt at this time.”
