

GEORGIA SOUTHERN MUSEUM
P.O. BOX 8061
STATESBORO, GA 30460

Three muralists from Derry known as The Bogside Artists have created eleven stunning murals depicting key events in the recent troubled history of their country. The group continues the Northern Irish tradition of murals as vehicles for social commentary, using their murals as tools to advance the peace and reconciliation process in Northern Ireland. The murals have been reproduced for exhibit at the Georgia Southern Museum, Fall, 2007.

For booking information, contact
Dr. Brent Tharp at the Georgia Southern University Museum: 912-681-5444
btharp@georgiasouthern.edu.

For more information on The Bogside Artists,
please visit
<http://cain.ulst.ac.uk/bogsideartists/>