

THE REGIONAL CULTURAL CENTRE, LETTERKENNY
IN COLLABORATION WITH LETTERKENNY AMNESTY GROUP

INVITES YOU TO THE EXHIBITION LAUNCH OF WAR-TORN CHILDREN
ON FRIDAY, 9TH FEBRUARY 2018 12.30-2PM

KEYNOTE ADDRESS BY PINA ATTANASIO, AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL IRELAND, MUSIC BY RICHARD GILPIN, INPUT BY ED HORGAN, NAMING THE CHILDREN PROJECT, LAUNCH BY CATHAOIRLEACH OF DONEGAL COUNTY COUNCIL, MR GERRY MCMONAGLE, AND A GUIDED TOUR BY CURATOR, ROBERTA BACIC.

FOLLOWED BY A "HANDS ON WORKSHOP: CONNECTING WITH ARPILLERAS", FACILITATED BY EXHIBITION CURATOR ROBERTA BACIC, 2-3PM

THIS EXHIBITION OF ARPILLERAS, PHOTOGRAPHS AND POSTERS, IS ON DISPLAY UNTIL 24TH MARCH.

ATTENDANCE IS FREE.

ALL ARE WELCOME.

REFRESHMENTS SERVED

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT 074 9129186

REGIONAL CULTURAL CENTRE, COVE HILL, PORT ROAD, LETTERKENNY, CO. DONEGAL.

WAR-TORN CHILDREN EXHIBITION PROGRAMME

Highlighting the devastating impact of war on children, their families and communities
All events take place in the Regional Cultural Centre.

Friday 9th February, 12.30-2pm

Exhibition launch and workshop

Keynote address by Pina Attanasio, Amnesty International Ireland, music by Richard Gilpin, input by Ed Horgan, Naming the Children project and a guided tour by curator, Roberta Bacic.

HANDS ON WORKSHOP:

Connecting with arpillas, facilitated by Roberta Bacic, 2-3pm

Thursday 15th February 8pm

About War

Local writing groups respond, prompted by the exhibition and the book
"Anne -An imagining of the life of Anne Frank" by Marjorie Agosín.

Thursday 22nd February, 11 – 12.30pm & 1.30- 3pm

Guided tour and workshop with students from two local schools

Facilitated by Roberta Bacic

Friday 9th March, 12.30-2.30pm

Conversations on war and peace

Billy Banda & Grace Adeogun, Donegal Intercultural Platform lead a discussion with women from areas of conflict around the world, followed by Breezy Willows baking Bread for Peace.

Thursday 15th March, 7-9pm

Margaretta D'Arcy (author and peace activist)

and Cahal McLaughlin (Professor of Film Studies, Queens University Belfast)

in conversation with John Lannon, University of Limerick

Screening of "Armagh Stories: Voices from the Gaol" a film by Cahal McLaughlin.

Launch of a new edition of Margaretta's book "Tell Them Everything", in which she recounts her time in Armagh Gaol in the 1980s (1st edition 1981)

Thursday 22nd March, 7.30-9.30pm (Closing event)

Remembrance event in association with "Naming the Children" project

Incorporating a screening of the film "Growing up with war: Children of Syria.

The tragedy of kids who have never known peace" and an input by Grace Adeogun,
Donegal Intercultural Platform

Knit a square

At any of these events you can join the knitting corner and knit a small square, 15 of which make up a baby blanket which will be sent to refugee camps in Greece.

For more information contact Jeremy Howard at the RCC

jeremy@regionalculturalcentre.com
(074) 912 9186

IMAGE

Auf der Flucht 1945 / Fleeing in 1945

German arpilla, Mara Loytved-Hardegg, 2010

Photo Martin Melaugh © Conflict Textiles collection