

Museum for Me at Culture Unconfined 11-15 May 2020

Culture Unconfined is a five-day digital festival from the University of Liverpool, a celebration of cultural responses to the environments we inhabit. Culture Unconfined provides a programme combining inspiring, joyful entertainment with education and intervention on issues of profound importance.

<https://www.liverpool.ac.uk/humanities-and-social-sciences/research/culture-unconfined/museum-for-me/>

Culture Unconfined festival space A Museum for Me takes you on an inspiring journey from fun interactive workshops for children and adults making mini-museums, through to the submission of human rights testimony to the Colombian Truth Commission, via a feast of contemporary dance, music, documentary, drama, community radio, poetry, and visual arts, that capture and communicate personal life-stories and historical memory.

Visit 'A Museum for Me'

<https://www.liverpool.ac.uk/humanities-and-social-sciences/research/culture-unconfined/museum-for-me/>

part of the University of Liverpool Culture Unconfined festival, 11-15 May 2020

<https://www.liverpool.ac.uk/humanities-and-social-sciences/research/culture-unconfined/museum-for-me/>

A full schedule of A Museum for Me activities and events will be available shortly on the A Museum for Me website

For further information on the artists involved in A Museum for Me, please contact lucia.brandi@liv.ac.uk

For news copy see the University of Liverpool website

<https://news.liverpool.ac.uk/2020/05/05/drama-music-poetry-and-film-culture-unconfined-festival-launches-online-may-11/>

