

Invite to 'Musical Global Histories'

2.30 – 3.30 on Tuesday 26th July at Ulster Museum

Join us to learn about and listen to a variety of incredible musical instruments. This event uses music to celebrate the World Cultures displayed in the Inclusive Global Histories exhibition.

Learn about the Zimbabwean mbira played by Agrippa Njanina, and Chinese guzheng played by Yujing Peng. Hear from Roberta Bacic about the subversive use of the Chilean national dance 'La Cueca Sola' as depicted in an arpillera textile piece in the museum. This will be followed by a musical response by Victor Henriquez on charango.

The event includes a tour of the 'Inclusive Global Histories' exhibition which will focus on the theme of music.

This is a FREE event. No booking required. Kindly supported by Queen's University, Belfast.
