

26th April, hands on textile workshop, as part of Disruptive Women at Ulster Museum

'Círculo de mujeres: Forum de arpilleras de Catalunya 2011 / Circle of women: Catalonia Arpilleras' Forum 2011'. Roser Corbera © Conflict Textiles

As part of The Troubles and Beyond: MujeresDisruptivas / Disruptive Women exhibition, we would like to invite you to a “hands on workshop” on the 26th April 2023, from 2 to 4.30 PM.

Arpilleristas Manoli and Pilar from the Fundació Ateneu Sant Roc group will facilitate the workshop. This is part of their wider visit to Northern Ireland to share their expertise in arpilleras and visit the ‘Mujeres Disruptivas’ exhibition venues where arpilleras from the Fundació Ateneu Sant Roc and Conflict Textiles collection are on display. They will also facilitate a workshop on the 27th April in the Void Gallery, Derry/Londonderry.

Basic materials will be provided and the emphasis is on working with scraps/recycled material.

Please bring a scrap of fabric which has a special significance to you.

No sewing experience is needed.

Dr. Claire Wright from Queen’s University Belfast will provide translation.

You will be received at 2pm by Senior Curator of History Karen Logan, Claire and the arpilleristas.

Kind regards,

Karen Logan

Karen Logan
Senior Curator of History
karen.logan@nmni.com

Roberta Bacic
Curator, Conflict Textiles
roberta.conflictextiles@gmail.com