

Regional Cultural Centre, Letterkennyis at Regional Cultural Centre, Letterkenny.

1d ·

CURATOR TALK: Roberta Bacic will be in conversation at the Cultural Centre at 4pm this Saturday (13th July).

Roberta will discuss the current RCC exhibition 'From Displacement to Empowerment,' her work with Conflict Textiles, including her major exhibition currently running at the Ulster Museum, and her fascinating career to date.

Regional Cultural Centre

Saturday 13 July, 4.00 PM

Admission free

The event will be followed by exhibition openings at 6.00 PM.

Roberta Bacic, born in Chile and a resident of Northern Ireland, is the founder of Conflict Textiles, an internationally significant collection of arpilleras. She holds degrees in philosophy and English teaching and works as a researcher in fields related to human rights. She was a professor at the Austral University of Chile (1973-1981), worked in various institutes and schools, and contributed to the National Corporation of Reparation and Reconciliation, the successor to the Truth Commission in Chile. From 1998 to 2002, she served as a Program and Development Officer for War Resisters