

3rd Station: Breege Doherty from Donegal, shared her family experience of maintaining the tradition of spinning over several generations to the present day. She will brought, samples of spun wool and a knitted garment. Participants were able to engage in conversation and practice.

4th Station: Amy Mitchell talked about the work of Ecumenical Accompaniment Programme in Palestine and Israel (EAPPI) which is an international program coordinated by the World Council of Churches and managed by Quakers in Britain on behalf of churches and NGOs in the UK and Ireland. She talked and showed us via a PowerPoint her own personal experience as part of the Programme in Palestine and Israel (she served in Jericho from January to April 2025).

Thanks to our contributors for images, participation, comments and more.

Two of the comments received:

- The event at the university was as interesting as always, and lots of lovely people to meet. There was a great energy in the room.
- Thanks for inviting me. It was great to connect with everyone. It was such a novel way to mark the day

Photos from Lauren Dempster, Breege Doherty, Christine Donaghy and Rob Fairmichael

Compiled by Conflict Textiles curator, Roberta Bacic

12th October 2025