Battle of Boqside
In response to public demand, this album has been produced in an effort to tell the story in pictorial form of the “Battle of Bogside,” which took place in Derry on the 12th and 13th August 1969. The Battle of Bogside will go down in Irish History as a victory for the ordinary people of Bogside, who after the battle declared the Bogside area as “Free Derry”

Proceeds from this album will go towards constructing a hall to facilitate an ever increasing membership of the Bogside Republican Movement.

"IRELAND UNFREE SHALL NEVER BE AT PEACE"

Padraig Pearse

Printed and Published by: "The Bogside Republican Appeal Fund"
The "Breaking of the Boom", 1969.
Here we go loopy-lou.
BOGSIDERS defend their barricades.
Police use tear gas in BOGSIDE.
Paisleyites and R.U.C. charge into the BOGSIDE.
Paisleyites and R.U.C. charge into the BOGSIDE.
The use of TEAR GAS in BOGSIDE.
R.U.C. armour car under attack.
BOGSIDERS defend their barricades against R.U.C. attack.
R.U.C. men throwing stones at BOGSIDERS.
R.U.C. corner boys.
Defenders of BOGSIDE in action.
August 13th. Tear gas pellets exploding at Joseph Place.
R.U.C. water cannon in action in DERRY.
R.U.C. sleeping beauty.
BOGSIDE building society. Stones available.
Time for a chat in BOGSIDE.
Attack on P.D. Marchers at Irish Street in DERRY.
BOGSIDERS regain ground.
Panic at Burntollet.
Where have all the BULLY-BOYS gone?
R.U.C. penetrate the BOGSIDE.
BOGSIDER face to face with R.U.C. attacker.
Petrol Bomb attack on R.U.C. finds its target.
BOGSIDERS run for cover.
They shall not pass.
R.U.C. attack on the BOGSIDE.
Signs of readiness in Derry's Rossville Street (above)
Rioters use hose captured from firemen who were fighting fire close by.
Yo-Ho, you can't catch me.
Into the valley of death.
R.U.C. water cannon in action in DERRY.
Rossville St. - Police stone the rioters.
Petrol bomb finds its target.
BOGSIDERS beat off R.U.C. attack.
Onward Christian Soldiers.
R.U.C. prepare to use tear gas on BOGSIDERS.
Paisleyites and R.U.C. attack on flats in BOGSIDE.
Battered shields reflect the veracity of the attack.
R.U.C. man uses tear gas gun in Bogside.
BOGSIDERS take possession of Petrol Tanker.
"Throw well - Throw Shell".