Your Best Guarantee for the Future of Northern Ireland

ASSEMBLY ELECTION MANIFESTO 1998

Your Best Guarantee - for a real democratic future

A strong Royal Ulster Constabulary
The future of the RUC is under grave threat. A strong RUC, along with RIR, is still needed to protect our country. The IRA has not gone away. We guarantee to oppose attempts to put policing in the hands of paramilitaries. Your security depends upon it.

No Cross-border executive bodies
Under the Agreement all-Ireland structures are proposed, in which unionists will always be a permanent minority. Dublin interference in Ulster’s affairs is planned to increase and intensify. We will not collude with others to set up the embryo of a United Ireland. Northern Ireland’s future is safe in our hands.

A real need for actual decommissioning
Illegal weapons retained by terrorists are a real threat to your security. The Government and UUP leaders made promises on decommissioning which they have broken. We will use our votes in the Assembly to insist on real and actual decommissioning and the dismantling of the terror machines.

Justice demands that terrorists stay in
All decent people recoil with moral contempt at the prospect of the mass release of those who have murdered and maimed the innocent, whilst the RUC is to be demoralised and disarmed. You have been given assurances by Tony Blair and others. We can be trusted to ensure these pledges are not sidelined.

No terrorists in government
Unrepentant and unreconstructed terrorists should not be in government with control over your life. The leader of the UUP said he would not sit down with IRA/Sinn Fein. In fact, he went further by entering into an Agreement with IRA/Sinn Fein under which he is pledged to work in Government alongside them! (See the first page of the Agreement)

A truly United Kingdom
We demand, as British citizens, equality of treatment, the protection of our lives, persons and property. We reject the erosion of British sovereignty through the abolition of the Government of Ireland Act. We seek the return of a democratic and accountable Government, free from domination by violent political terrorists.
Working together and uniting Unionism

United and unanimous, your DUP team is working together across Northern Ireland to achieve our shared objectives. At the same time we have reached out to other unionists to maximise your influence and strengthen your voice in the new Assembly. United we stand!

Official Unionist Party divided and squabbling

The Official Unionists display a sorry picture of disharmony and disunity. Deep divisions mean weakness and distractions. If they can’t unite their own party, what hope is there for them uniting the Unionist people?

Only the DUP demonstrates real strength through true unity.

No one can accuse us of breaking our promises. We
Your Best Guarantee of holding Tony Blair to his pledges:
A Strong, United DUP Team

Solemn pledges from Blair and Trimble already crumbling
Our pressure resulted in Tony Blair giving pledges to you before the Referendum. We are your best guarantee to ensure these pledges are fulfilled. Already the government is trying to wriggle off the hook. They want to let terrorists out of prison without any linkage to the actual handing in of illegal weapons. Don’t let them get away with breaking their promises again - we won’t!

Playing for time... legislation delayed
Why won’t the government let you see the legislation to implement Blair’s pledges on IRA arms and Sinn Fein in government now? They will wait until after the election so that you will have voted before their pledge breaking is exposed.

Who will partner IRA/Sinn Fein in a Northern Ireland government?
Under the Agreement, Trimble and other Unionist “Yes men” are prepared to work with IRA/Sinn Fein in government even without prior decommissioning.
They once said “No talks with Sinn Fein.”
Now it’s “more power for Sinn Fein.”

Your Best Guarantee—our pledge to you

The DUP will be hard at work in the new Assembly representing your interests. Whether you are one of the majority of Unionists who voted “No”, or someone who voted “Yes” with reservations, we share your concerns about:

- Unreconstructed terrorists in government
- The retention of illegal weapons by terrorists
- The plans for the destruction of the RUC
- All-Ireland bodies with executive powers
- The mass release of terrorists
- British sovereignty being eroded

You can only be sure that the pledges extracted from Tony Blair and other unionists by those of us in the “No” campaign are kept by ensuring a strong voice and presence in the new Assembly for those who won those pledges.

You can be certain these issues will not be forgotten by voting for the strong and united Democratic Unionist team which has proved it keeps its word.
