Breaking News

Early reports from the city of Derry are indicating that a British institution in the form of Derry City Courthouse has been attacked this evening in what is believed to have been a large mine attack by Republican Revolutionaries.

Reports from the city say that a car filled with with explosives, planted outside the British court, exploded as Crown Force personnel attended the scene.

This attack comes on the eve of the centenary of the Soloheadbeg ambush where Sean Treacy and his comrades struck a historic blow against the Crown Forces in Tipperary, it seems 100 years later Volunteer Sean Tracey's comrades continue the unfinished revolution.
