Re: Threat received from LVF.

With reference to the above I am to inform you that a call was received at 12.15pm on 2nd July, 1997 at Press in Belfast. The caller used a recognised LVF callsign -

"This is a message to the Irish Government.

If the Orange Parade does not go down the Garvaghy Road on Sunday the Irish Government may expect civilians to be killed in the Irish Republic.

Once and for all the Irish Government has to learn that they'll not interfere in the internal affairs of Northern Ireland which is part of the United Kingdom.

This threat will be carried out immediately if the parade is banned."

D/CHIEF SUPERINTENDENT for ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER.
