Statement by the Taoiseach on the arrest of suspected terrorists.

The Taoiseach, Mr Bertie Ahern T.D., has complimented the Garda Síochána on today's arrests in Dublin and Dundalk of persons suspected of involvement in terrorist activity.

Mr Ahern said that similar arrests which took place in London today provided further evidence of the extremely effective co-operation which is maintained between the security forces on both sides.

The Government will continue to underpin the peace process by tackling the terrorist threat from whatever source.
