

From: The Inspector General, Royal Ulster Constabulary
To: The General Officer Commanding Northern Ireland.

In view of the continued worsening of the situation in Londonderry City on this date as outlined in the attached copy of a warning message sent to the Home Office, London, and the fact that this situation has deteriorated further since the timing of the message to the Home Office, I now request the assistance of forces under your command in Londonderry City.

J. B. Egan

14. 3. 69

4. 45/3