CAIN ## CONFLICT ARCHIVE
on the INTERNET

Politics and 'the Troubles'
in Northern Ireland

The CAIN Web site contains a wide range of information and source material about the Northern Ireland conflict from 1968 to the present day. The site also provides information on politics and society in the region.

CAIN has, for example, chronologies of key events, databases of facts and figures, abstracts on organisations and biographies of prominent people. Collections of photographs on topics such as murals, posters, and ephemeral material are also maintained on the site.

CAIN has already helped thousands of researchers, teachers, and students from around the world with their work on Northern Ireland, and the site is an invaluable resource for local people as well.

CAIN is one of the core resources within ARK, a resource that aims to make social and political information on Northern Ireland available to the widest possible audience.

Complete details of the information and source material that is available, together with background information on CAIN, can be found at the Web site.

---

CAIN Web Service
www.ark.ac.uk/cain

Most of the information and source material available at the CAIN site is contained in the following three main sections.

Background to the conflict

- background on Northern Ireland Society
- bibliographies
- chronologies
- introduction to the conflict
- thesaurus
- guide to research
- abstracts on organisations
- photographs
- maps
- murals
- biographies of people

Key events of the conflict

- civil rights campaign
- internment
- ulster workers' council strike
- hunger strikes
- peace process

Key issues of the conflict

- politics
- political parties
- elections
- policy initiatives
- education
- employment
- administration of justice
- violence
- security
- parades
- children

Contact details

Dr Martin Melaugh, CAIN Director
INCORE, University of Ulster
Northland Road,
Londonderry BT48 7JL
T: +44 (0)28 7137 5517   E: m.melaugh@ulster.ac.uk   W: www.ark.ac.uk/cain

CAIN Web Service

www.ark.ac.uk/cain

University of ULSTER

E·S·R·C ECONOMIC & SOCIAL RESEARCH COUNCIL

Queen's University Belfast