

Women's Real Lives

International Women's Day 8th March 2009

Eden Place Arts Centre is organising an exhibition as one part of a city wide chain of events for International Women's Day 2009. We are working in partnership with: Derry City Council, The Women's Centre, Children in Crossfire and Roberta Bacic, guest curator of The Art Of Survival: International and Irish Quilts March/April 2008, acting as coordinator of the different activities.

Eden Place Arts Centre is now accepting proposals for the Exhibition which will be launched on Thursday 5th March 2009.

The theme of this exhibition will be Women's Real Lives.

This is an open invitation to all female artists and Women's Groups. Proposals will be juried and we will not accept any work which does not address the theme.

Our gallery is also our work space so unfortunately we cannot accept any installations. This year the exhibition will be spread over more than one venue with some of the larger pieces of work, such as wall hangings, quilts, collages, etc. on display at the Tower Museum.

If you are interested in submitting a piece of work please send your proposal form to me before Monday 17th November. You will be notified if your piece is accepted by Monday December 1.

If you would like more information or would like to discuss this further please do not hesitate to contact me.
