

• Home

• About Us

• Our Team

• Latest News

• Public Engagement

• Discussion Forum

• Contact Us

GROUP MEETS CATHOLIC CHURCH DELEGATION

28 May 2008

The Group has held discussions with a delegation from the Catholic Church in Belfast this afternoon.

Co-chairs of the group, Lord Robin Eames and Denis Bradley, welcomed the meeting with the delegation led by Cardinal Sean Brady.

Speaking after the meeting Lord Eames said, “We have met with a broad spectrum of groups and individuals and listened to their views on how we can deal with our troubled past.

“Today we had a very open and constructive dialogue with Cardinal Brady and his colleagues and we are grateful to them for taking the time to meet with us on this most important issue.”

The meeting with the Church delegation comes ahead of tomorrow’s key note address by Lord Eames and Denis Bradley when they will outline the key areas that need to be addressed if Northern Ireland is to deal with the legacy of the past.

© 2008 CGPNI

« Go Back

Web design and web development by Tibus

Site Map | Privacy