Sinn Féin Limavady Mayor to hold 'Day of Reflection'

Published: 28 November, 2008

Sinn Féin plan to hold a 'Day of Reflection' aimed at promoting reconciliation and equality in Limavady borough council next month.

A candle lighting ceremony will be held in the Mayors Chamber in Limavady Borough Council on Friday 12th December to acknowledge and remember all those who have died as a result of war and conflict through-out the world.

Limavady Mayor Brenda Chivers speaking about the upcoming event said "this is an important opportunity for everyone in society to reflect both the difficulties and pain of the past but also on the changes in recent years and on how we move forward into the future".

She continued:

"Across councils in the north over the past number of years Sinn Féin have developed an approach to reflection based upon inclusion and reaching out that has been led by Sinn Féin mayors and Chairs.

"Our approach is underpinned by the principles of dignity, respect, sensitivity and inclusiveness. It is important that we recognise all who have lost their lives as a result of war and conflict and all those who still live with the pain and memory of that loss.

"This event is open to all members of the public and anyone who would like more information on the event can contact Dungiven Sinn Féin on 77742488."
