Ulster Unionist Victims Spokesperson Derek Hussey MLA has paid tribute to Interim Victims Commissioner Bertha McDougall, adding that her report today sets out a “comprehensive victims’ agenda”.

In a statement, the West Tyrone MLA said: “In a thorough report containing 36 recommendations, Bertha McDougall has outlined a positive and comprehensive victims’ agenda that stands in stark contrast to the petty partisanship of recent days.

“I trust that an incoming Northern Ireland executive will work speedily to implement her recommendations.

“The dignified and sensitive manner in which Bertha undertook the role of Interim Victims Commissioner has set exacting standards for her successor.

“On behalf of the UUP I would like to pay tribute to Bertha McDougall for her hard work in this area and I would like to wish her every success in the future.”
