Kennedy expresses Disgust and Revulsion at Quinn Murder

E-mail to a friend October 22nd, 2007 Danny Kennedy MLA

Ulster Unionist Deputy Leader and Newry and Armagh MLA Danny Kennedy today expressed his disgust at the brutal murder of 21 year Paul Quinn who was apparently set upon by a gang and added if the IRA were involved it could have political consequences.

In a statement Mr Kennedy said,

“The community will feel utter revulsion at this murder and the manner in which it was carried out, reminiscent of a lynching gang from the deep south.

I would urge full co-operation from the community with the Police in ensuring that those responsible for this disgusting act of murder are brought to justice and thrown behind bars.

If as allegations suggest, the IRA was involved in the murder of Mr Quinn it could have political consequences.”
